

Luke Wahlberg Bio

Whether designing landscapes on Madeline Island, Wisconsin or exploring the mountains of western Montana, Luke's craftsmanship is second to none. From intricate, delicate hand-carved and laminated exotic wood reliefs and sculptures to, landscape design or large architectural projects, he is totally comfortable fashioning functional and decorative wood, concrete and stone forms and structures on any scale. Luke lives in his custom built timber log home in Oulu, Wisconsin with his wife and 3 young daughters.

Artist Statement

I aim to know our awesome creator through Jesus.